

I have never voted according to an election year, nor have I ever played to the crowd in order to get that, but I do resent the implication. Evidently the senator wasn't listening when I said I wouldn't vote for the kill motion, but at the same time, I wasn't sure I would vote for the Hoagland motion. No, it wasn't DeCamp, but I would not vote for the Hoagland bill, perhaps it needed some amending. Thank you, Mr. President, and thank you, colleagues for your giving me this opportunity.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Senator DeCamp, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR DECAMP: A point of personal privilege, Mr. President.

SENATOR CARSTEN: State your point to the Chair.

SENATOR DECAMP: It wasn't me. I tend to get blamed for everything, so I just need to clear it, it wasn't me this time.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Okay, that will take care of that. Before we move on, Mr. Clerk, the Chair would like to take this opportunity to introduce to the Legislature some guests of Senator Abboud, 42 fourth grade students from Meadows School in Ralston and their teachers. They are in the south balcony. Would you rise that we may welcome you and hope you have a pleasant day. Next bill, Mr. Clerk, is 775.

CLERK: Mr. President, if I might right before that, your Committee on Enrollment and Review reports LB 494, 753 and 877 correctly engrossed. Those are signed by Senator Hall as Chair. I have a reference report and a notice of hearing for a confirmation hearing.

Mr. President, Senator Schmit would ask unanimous consent to bracket LB 603 until April 5.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Are there any objections? Did I hear an objection? Senator Higgins. Senator Schmit, do you want to move? There is an objection. There is an objection to your bracketing the bill. Do you want to move on it, or don't you?

CLERK: It's on 603, Senator. You had asked to bracket the
